

Project management

Feasibility study for biomass powered district heating system in the town of Mozirje

Location

Mozirje, Slovenia

Investment value

10.000,00 €

Year(s)

2004 - 2005

Services

Feasibility study for biomass powered district heating system in the town of Mozirje

Investor

Municipality of Mozirje

A comprehensive analysis of the existing situation in the municipality Mozirje for heating public and private buildings and the preparation of economic, technical and environmental analysis for the project biomass powered district heating system in Mozirje. Approx. network length of 1.2 km and the estimated consumption of 3.12 GWh /a.